

A photograph of three baguettes resting on a black wire cooling rack. The rack is placed on a dark, vertically-grained wooden surface. Two baguettes are whole, with a golden-brown crust and a visible diagonal score. The third baguette is sliced into several pieces, with one slice cut off and placed to the right. The baguettes are partially wrapped in white paper with a red border. A red banner is overlaid at the bottom right of the image.
